

Committed to our mission to teach the history of the Holocaust and advance human rights to combat prejudice, hatred, and indifference, we invite you to enjoy these original DHHRM-produced short films that feature testimonies from local Holocaust survivors who share their personal experiences during the war.

CLICK ON THE TITLE OR IMAGE TO VIEW THE FILMS

Hope* Strength*Resolve

This short film served as the featured program for the fully virtual 2020 Hope for Humanity fundraiser. Testimonies from local Holocaust survivors and Texas liberators to share their memories of the liberation of Nazi concentration camps at the end of WWII. (2020)

Music in the Camps

Powerful survivor testimonies narrate this incredible facet of Holocaust history. A cello choir from the Dallas Symphony Orchestra closes the film with a deeply moving performance dedicated to Lev Aronson, Holocaust survivor who later claimed the distinguished DSO position of Principal Cellist after immigrating to the US. (2021)

Max Glauben: A Legacy of Hope

Recorded testimonies of Max Glauben through the years collectively tell of his experiences in the Warsaw Ghetto. This short film was the featured tribute video when the Museum honored Max at the 2021 Hope for Humanity fundraiser dinner. (2021)

In Memory of Max Glauben

Max Glauben - Holocaust survivor, passionate advocate, and co-founder and lifetime Museum director - passed away on April 28, 2022. He dedicated his life to sharing his Holocaust story to honor his family and to impart his mantra to never give up. (2022)

Open Hearts, Open Homes: A Story of the Kindertransport

This inspirational film, narrated by voices of local survivors Magie Furst and Bert Romberg, reminds us how Upstander behavior and personal choices can save lives. (2022)

Hidden Children: Secret Sanctuaries

Special thanks to local survivors Ginette Mandelblum Albert, Paul Kessler, Dr. Max Spindler, and Rosian Bagriansky Zerner for sharing their experiences as hidden children during the Holocaust. Their lifelong gratitude towards their parents and their rescuers who risked their lives to save them reminds us that one person can make a difference. (2023)

SPECIAL THANKS

Miles Emerson Productions and On-Air Media (Melissa Plaskoff, Collin Britton) for creating and producing these films, in conjunction with staff at the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum.